

Business (Short Stay)

The Business (Short Stay) visa is designed for bona fide business people who wish to visit Australia for up to three months to conduct business. Such activities may include a conference/seminar/convention, negotiation, setting up an office in Australia, activities relating to importing goods into your home country for business purposes, an exploratory business visit etc. A single-entry or multiple-entry visa may be issued.

In many countries, you can obtain a Business (Short Stay) visa at the same time you purchase an airline ticket. Ask for a Business Electronic Travel Authority (ETA) for Australia.

We are also able to assist business people applying for a Business (Short Stay) visa with their travel and accommodation arrangements, as well as with preparation of their visa applications, advice regarding documentation that must be submitted in support of their application and translation of such documents.

Please note that the information about visas is in general terms. There are many subclasses of visas that may be appropriate to your personal and unique situation that we can advise you about . Furthermore , the law concerning migration is subject to frequent amendment.
