

As a migrant, can I buy property when I arrive in Australia?

If you have a permanent visa then you can purchase property on the same terms as Australian citizens. Temporary residents and visitors normally have to get Foreign Investment Review Board approval to buy residential property. You can visit the FIRB website at: www.firb.gov.au
You can also contact us for clarification on any such matter